

INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

Shotlist and translation

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) OFFERS THE FOLLOWING VIDEO NEWS RELEASE TO ALL NEWS AGENCIES, BROADCASTERS AND ALL ONLINE PLATFORMS FREE OF CHARGE.

Story Headline: South Sudanese refugee Anjelina Nadai Lohalith selected for Refugee Olympic Team at Olympic Games Rio 2016

Date: 3 June 2016

Place: Nairobi, Kenya

SHOT LOG & transcripts of sound bites:

Close up shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith stretching before her training session.

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith training along with her training group.

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith stretching before training.

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):
“When the war began it displaced me from where I was because the village where I was, everything was burnt down and all the good places were destroyed so there was a lot of displacement.”

Close up shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith putting on her running spikes.

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith putting on her running spikes.

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):
“I left behind all of my siblings and my parents. I left them there so that is where they live but I don’t know what happened because since I came here from there I have never communicated with them.”

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith during training.

Close up shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith’s feet as she walks towards the track at training.

Close up shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith during training.

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):
“I’m happy for it because it will be the first time for a refugee to be represented in the Olympics, and since I will be one of the team I will be very happy to travel and be amongst those guys who will be there.”

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith walking during training.

Close up shot Anjelina Nadai Lohalith jogging during training.

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):
“Going to Rio, it might enable me to see different people, interact with them and learn many skills. I’ll see many places I’ve never been before and I might succeed in some way, I might earn some money to at least improve the life of my family.”

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith running during training.

Tracking shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith running in training.

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith running during training.

Wide shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith running during training.

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):
“In Olympics, it will inspire the other refugees because wherever they are they are not just the other people they are like all of us. They might also get that encouragement that they can compete in some way, because wherever they are they can be looked down on as a refugee but they might see they have that character and ability to be better at things all over the world wherever they are.”

Tracking shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith running during training.

Shot of Anjelina Nadai Lohalith running during training.

End

EXTRA VIDEO CLIP

TITLE: Anjelina Nadai Lohalith extra soundbites.

DURATION: 1.36

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):

QUESTION: What was your experience of growing up in South Sudan?

“The war was very violent, we could not sleep during the day and during the night we used to move inside the bush and come out the following day. By then the war was still continuing and the food was not that good because the food had become small.”

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):

QUESTION: Did you go to school?

“I was supposed to go to school and the system of education was not there but there was a time I managed to go to school but I was disturbed by the tradition because my father told me I should look after the cows and the goat instead of going to school.”

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):

QUESTION: What was life like in the refugee camp?

Okay, life in the refugee camp was somehow good because we were free, even though some might say we weren't that free because, actually, we could get food for free and sometimes you could at least see you were protected but by that time we stayed safe although there were some challenges.”

SOUND BITE Anjelina Nadai Lohalith, refugee athlete (English language):

QUESTION: Why is it important to have an Olympic Refugee Team?

“Okay, competing in the Olympic Games to bring a good message all over the world and hopefully peace is created and some people will appreciate that being a refugee is not just a refugee, but you're a human being like other people so you can do better also, like the way they are doing.”

End

Shotlist and translation

---

© 2016 - International Olympic Committee - All rights reserved.

© 2016 International Olympic Committee - All rights reserved. This material is authorised strictly for editorial purposes exclusively within the framework of news reporting around the Olympic Games Rio 2016. The use of this Material for any promotional, advertisement or other commercial purposes, is strictly prohibited. The integrity of this material shall be respected at all times. Without the prior written approval of the IOC, any editing, lending, renting, selling, licensing, exhibiting, or otherwise dealing with this material, is strictly prohibited. Any work or element therein included, without limitation moving or still images, music or sound recordings, texts or artworks, shall not be used on a stand-alone basis. The non-exclusive, non-transferable and revocable rights hereby granted are valid thru 21 September 2016, inclusive. All other rights hereby not expressly granted are reserved by the International Olympic Committee.