Answer: "Unbelievable it was bit unexpected because I haven't done well in training. It's unbelievable because I was quite calm after the first round because I lead by quite a lot so I could really focus on my run and really calm down and it was really a good race."

Answer: "The most difficult part is to focus because people are jumping around some are happy and some are sad so you just have to find a balance between talking to people and concentrating."

Answer: “Two weeks ago I had a training week here and it went really well and I improved so much and then when the official training started here my times got slower and it just pulled me down mentally but I knew I could do it. I cried a lot yesterday because it was a hard training session but I came to the start line and I said I know I can do it and I just tired to lie to myself basically.”
