

INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

Shotlist and translation

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) OFFERS THE FOLLOWING VIDEO NEWS RELEASE TO ALL NEWS AGENCIES, BROADCASTERS AND ALL ONLINE PLATFORMS FREE OF CHARGE.

Story Headline: South Sudanese refugee Paulo Amotun Lokoro selected for Refugee Olympic Team at Olympic Games Rio 2016

Date: 3 June 2016

Place: Nairobi, Kenya

SHOT LOG & transcripts of sound bites:

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro warming up before training.

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language):
“You know there, you meet many people there, you are going to run with the world. You meet with the refugees, not asylum that is a refugee somewhere. If all of us going there you meet together with refugees and then you compete. So people that are watching us in the world. They say these are the refugees.”

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro warming up, filmed through a football net.

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro warming up.

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language):
“I want to win a gold, I want to be famous. If I really win the race, I will be famous, in the future.”

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro having a drink of water.

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro sat on a step.

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language):
“My dream, I want to break the record of the world. I want to win the gold, yes in gold is how you win the race, if I win the medal or a gold, it's my dream. I wish I will go and win the gold.”

Shotlist and translation

Close up shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro sat on a step.

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro sat with a drink.

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language):
“I left South Sudan in 2006, when the war had broken out, my family was there, they were all there. Then my parents they ran away fast to Mukaya and they left me there in Sudan. They left me there in the village. I stayed in the village for three years without my parents, I stayed in my uncle’s house. After my father Richard come he left my mum here and then they come back to the village.”

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro stretching.

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro running along a muddy track.

Wide shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro and his training group running.

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language)
“I was 12 years old, that time I was still young, I didn't know anything, I was just like that. Then there we went into the town where the war was breaking out. We stayed in the town something like two to three weeks so the war started, so we ran away. We ran away with my...my uncle and I we live in the village so I come with my sister in town, so when the war started we ran away. We ran in the bush, we stayed in the bush. You know there there is no food, we just eat the fruit. You get the fruit sometimes my sister run to town, they come and bought maize. They come back to the forest and they give us and we eat.”

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro and his training group running across a bridge.

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro and his training group running towards the camera.

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro and his training group from behind.

Shot of Paulo Amotun Lokoro and his training group from ahead of them.

End

EXTRA VIDEO CLIP

TITLE: Paulo Amotun Lokoro extra soundbites.

DURATION: 1.58

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language)

QUESTION: What kind of training are you receiving?

“Here the training is good. The training is good here - not like other places where you never train, they just run once and stay but here we train everyday - every morning and afternoon, just running like that. The running is good.”

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language)

QUESTION: Is there pride in being a refugee?

“I know those refugees that are there are proud of us and we are a product, for us if you train well and performance is good. They are so happy and me as well, I'm happy and proud of refugee.”

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language)

QUESTION: How do you feel about appearing at the Olympic Games?

“You go there and look at the stadium look at the history and the environment is nice, people are living a good life so of course me I want to be like those people.”

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language)

QUESTION: What are the chances of winning?

“I will win. I will win. This training I have is so good, people just run but these people they bring something and of course bring something here. You will see us there.”

SOUND BITE Paulo Amotun Lokoro, refugee athlete (English language)

QUESTION: Does the refugee team have a symbolic value?

Shotlist and translation

“A refugee team is formed as we need peace, yeah? Being a refugee doesn't mean you're not a human being. Refugee they are a human being.”

End

© 2016 - International Olympic Committee - All rights reserved. All rights reserved. This material is authorised strictly for editorial purposes exclusively within the framework of news reporting around the Olympic Games Rio 2016. The use of this Material for any promotional, advertisement or other commercial purposes, is strictly prohibited. The integrity of this material shall be respected at all times. Without the prior written approval of the IOC, any editing, lending, renting, selling, licensing, exhibiting, or otherwise dealing with this material, is strictly prohibited. Any work or element therein included, without limitation moving or still images, music or sound recordings, texts or artworks, shall not be used on a stand-alone basis. The non-exclusive, non-transferable and revocable rights hereby granted are valid thru 21 September 2016, inclusive. All other rights hereby not expressly granted are reserved by the International Olympic Committee.