Sixteen years old Saurabh Chaudhary followed up the success of Manu Bhaker in the women's 10m Air Pistol on Tuesday with victory in the men's 10m Air Pistol 24 hours later.

It brings India's tally in shooting to two golds and two silvers from four events.

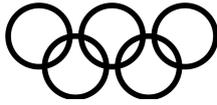

With his medal winning compatriots watching from the stands, Chaudhary finished on 244.2 points. The silver medallist a Yunho Sung of South Korea scored 236.7. Bronze went to Switzerland's Jason Solari with a score of 215.6 points.

Afterwards Chaudhary said: 'We have a lot of support from our families, our coaches and the federation. If you put that together with a lot of hard work and a bit of luck which is god-given, then good things happen.'

For individual shooting events at Buenos Aires 2018 shots are fired at a ten ring target in the qualification. Men and women have to fire 60 shots in 75 minutes. The final consists of two five-shot series to be fired in command in a time of 50 seconds.

Eliminations of the lowest scoring finalists begin after the 12 shots and continue after every two shots until the gold and silver medals are decided. There is a total of 24 shots in the final.

Buenos Aires 2018 is the third edition of the Summer Youth Olympic Games (YOG) to be held, bringing together the world's best young athletes between the ages of 15 and 18.
