STORY SCRIPT:

The final day of competition in the tennis tournament at Buenos Aires 2018 began with Slovakia's Kaja Juvan claiming Gold in the Women's Individual Tennis final.

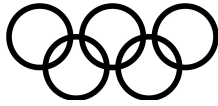

Juvan, who is 17, beat her French opponent, Clara Burel, in two straight sets, 7-5, 6-4 on Court One of the Buenos Aires Lawn Tennis Club. The bronze medal went to Colombia's Maria Osorio-Serrano. Juvan added the Singles gold to the Doubles gold she won on Saturday.

Argentinian fans then had their chance to celebrate Gold at their country's home of tennis. Argentina's Men's Doubles pair of Sebastian Baez and Facundo Diaz-Acosta beat a mixed international pairing of Adrian Andreev from Bulgaria, and Rinky Hijikata of Australia. They won in straight sets 6-4, 6-4. It was Diaz Acosta's second gold of the Games after winning the Singles title on Saturday. Bronze in the Men's Doubles went to the French pair of Hugo Gaston, the men's singles gold medallist, and Clement Tabur.

In the Mixed Doubles Final the Japanese couple of Yuki Naito and Naoki Tajima met the Colombians Maria Osorio-Serrano, and Nicolas Mejia. Naito, who's 17 and 18 years old Tajima won won in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3 to bring more gold success to Japan.

Buenos Aires 2018 is the third edition of the Summer Youth Olympic Games (YOG) to be held, bringing together the world's best young athletes between the ages of 15 and 18. For the first time in Olympic history the Games will have gender equality, with equal numbers of males and females competing in the 32-sport programme.

Almost 4,000 athletes from 206 National Olympic Committees will be competing for 1,250 medals. The Youth Olympic Games Buenos Aires 2018 feature new sports and many new disciplines and events, reflecting the passions of the 'Game Changers', a new generation of athletes and fans.

The event offers a glimpse into the future of the Games as the new programme will introduce several innovations that will be replicated at the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020.

The first Summer Youth Olympic Games took place in Singapore in 2010. The second edition was held in the Chinese city of Nanjing in 2014.

"Tekma je bila zelo težka. Že od včerajšnjega dne me je bolela noga, kljub temu pa sem šla v tekmo na zmago. Na žalost sem si proti koncu dvoboja rahlo zvila gleženj, zato je občutek nekoliko sladko-kisel. Ko sem izgubljala, sem si v mislih nenehno ponavljala, da moram igrati na vsako točko. Tudi nasprotnica je delala napake, zato se je vse skupaj zame srečno končalo."

The game was very difficult. From yesterday on, my leg hurt, but I wanted to win today's match nevertheless. Unfortunately, I slightly twisted my ankle towards the end of the match, so the feeling is slightly sour. When I was losing, I kept reminding myself in my mind that I have to play for each point. My opponent also made mistakes, so everything ended up happily for me.

"La verdad es que no hay palabras para describir este momento. La verdad que fue algo único y muchas veces no se va a pasar, porque estas cosas no pasan todos los días. Y creo que lo disfrutamos a lo máximo."

Si la verdad es que no tenemos palabras para este momento que vivimos, con toda la gente viniendo y todos cantamos el himno (nacional) nos emocionó muchísimo."

Honestly, there are no words to describe this moment. The truth is that it was something unique that may not happen that often, because these things don't happen every day, and I think we have enjoyed to the fullest

We don't have words to describe the moment that we are living, with all those people that came to support us, and singing the [national] anthem all together was something very emotional
